What to Expect?

This tour is designed for those on their first interactions with India with its very distinct parts in terms of language, traditions and people. It is a quick but experiential introduction to the Best of India and can also serve as extension to other tours. The days can be busy, where traveling is combined with sightseeing with early mornings. Driving time is kept to minimum and the roads are generally pretty good, but local traffic and/or road damage can sometimes slow us down. These times then are for wonderful discoveries. The luxurious accommodations thus have been chosen to offer relaxed nights.

It is a brief introduction with mid range comfortable accommodation, personal vehicle and modest prices. The days in this part are warm and the nights cooler and hence light clothes during the day and a pull over would just do fine in the Winter departure dates. Excellent drivers, restaurants and magnificent Monuments make this a extremely memorable tour.

Khaled the tour director has an extensive and wide experience of conducting tours of various nationalities and makes it a point to offer valuable socio-cultural and historical insights during the entire tour. You can view some of the testimonials here.

He would be around always and would take care for all your needs. So just be there and book this tour now!

This Short Escorted Tour is designed to present the highlights of one of the most popular and important Destinations on every weekend. The tour starts from Delhi and traverses through the most populous State of India, Uttar Pradesh and desert state of Rajasthan and finally winding up at Delhi the Capital City of India. This tour is best for first timers and looking for quick trip and value for of the best of India.

The tour showcases the magnificent monuments, the culture, the tradition and the people. We visit the metropolitan capital cities with their historical rooting as seen in the UNESCO World Heritage Monuments of Delhi, Agra and Jaipur. We would have the journey down the lanes of Old bazaars of Chandni Chowk of Delhi. The major highlight of the tour is the visit to the Wonder of the World the Taj Mahal, at sunrise.

Optional Tours (On additional price and subject to availability on prior booking)

At Jaipur there are optional tours like the Elephant Ride at Amber Fort and (optional) Walking Tours of the bazaars of Pink City winding up with relishing the Indian hospitality & Ethnic Rajasthani Cuisine with cultural and dance programme. The home hosted dinner with an Indian family, truly makes this programme unique and all comprehensive experience of India. All this becomes relevant with the knowledgeable tour director conducting the tour be it two people or large group of people.
